Character of General Grant.

A. D. Richardson, in his forthcoming Life of Grant, says:
"Some still see in him only the darling of fortune—energetic mediocrity which has blundered into success. I think such are misled by two of his peculiar qualities:
"1. His unimaginativeness. When he has nothing to say, he says nothing. In private he fills no interstices of conversation by remarks upon the weather, or inquires after the babies of his visitor. In public he can make no speeches simply of form or compliment; and since the world cared to hear his opinions on affairs, his official position has never allowed him to speak freely. But in public or private, when he has anything to utter by tongue or pen, he says it with extreme rapidity and clearness, in terse, unvarnished, idiomatic English. Even then he clothes his thoughts in no flowers of rhetoric, but presents them in the plainest, homeliest words. Napoleon's memorable sayings are all of this order. 'From these summits forty centuries look down upon you.' 'We will carry our victorious eagles beyond the pillars of Hercules.' Grant's are the exact antipodes: 'I have no terms but unconditional surrender.' 'I propose to move immediately upon your works.' 'I shall fight it out on this line if it takes all Summer.' 'I found the army like a balky horse.' 'Gen. Butler was bottled up.' 'Said the dramatic Corsican after Antietam: 'Soldiers, I am satisfied with you. You have executed your orders with the most perfect fidelity. The matter-of-fact American to his shouting men after Port Gibson: 'Soldiers, I thank you. That is all I can say. You have done a good day's work to-day, but you must do a better to-morrow.' No shining rhetoric, no poetic gushes; only the simple, unadorned fact.
"2. He is the most undramatic of men. Scott was nicknamed by his enemies 'Fuss and Feathers.' Grant has less fuss and fewer feathers than any other public man of his day. He believes with the Chinese proverb, that 'That which is is.' He accepts things just as he finds them, not troubling himself about the 'Eternal Verities,' but doing promptly, thoroughly and sublimely the duty which lies right before him, however prosaic and disagreeable. He acts his convictions instead of talking them.
"3. He is utterly genuine and guileless. He still preserves in his high estate the sweetness and simplicity of his country boyhood. Altogether free from cant, his lips obeying the teachings of his mother, have uttered no oath, been soiled by no coarseness.
"4. He is a miracle of serenity and self-poise. During the terrors of Belmont, when an aide, with pallid cheeks, cried, 'Why, General, we are surrounded!' we are surrounded!' there was no perceptible change in his pleasant face or calm voice as he answered, 'Then we will cut our way out.' Three years later, as he read Lee's dispatch proposing the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, he was equally unmoved; no elation shone in his face, or sounded in the ordinary tone in which he asked, 'Well, Gen. Rawlins, how do you think of that?' 'Tried by both extremes of fortune and never disturbed by either,' he remains as simple and unaffected to-day as in his years of poverty and obscurity."

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN DENTISTRY.

The attention of the public is called to a great discovery in Dentistry.

THE GREATEST ADVANCE STEP EVER MADE IN THE ART.

The main difficulty in wearing artificial teeth is, they do not hold in their place firmly enough, and add to this the annoyance of food getting under the plate while eating. I have discovered a method of so constructing the plate on which the teeth are set that they will not start or drop while eating or speaking, neither will any particles of food get under the plate, no matter what the condition of the mouth is, which is not true of any method hitherto used.

I have secured Letters Patent for the United States, England and France.

The improvement is not in material, but in the construction, which secures the atmospheric pressure on the entire plate.

I have sold the exclusive of said improvement to Dr. L. Gilman, for the Counties of Franklin, Washington, Chittenden, Lamoille and Grand Isle. Those wishing to avail themselves of such improvement, will call on

N. T. FOLSON,

The American Cooking Store in Court.

An adjourned term of the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Northern District of New York, in the second circuit held at the City Hall, in the city of Albany, the 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1868.

PRESENT:

The Hon. NATHAN K. HALL, Judge,

JACOB H. SHEAR & JOSEPH PARSONS, Esq.,

Geo. B. BULL & JOHN M. ROCKWELL, Esq.,

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that a perpetual injunction be issued in this suit against the defendants, restraining them from further infringement of said Patent, No. 51,166, Dated Dec. 31st, 1865, for improvements in cooking stoves, pursuant to and in accordance with the prayer of the bill of Complaint.

Signed at Albany, New York, the 28th day of January, 1868.

The above was read for information of the Patent securing the manner of fitting the ash pan in the hearth of the American Cooking Stove, and for the combination of the said ash pan. We have repeatedly cautioned the public against selling or using stoves with these improvements not manufactured by us. All persons now selling or using stoves with these improvements in violation of the above injunction, without license from us, will be liable to fine and imprisonment. SHEAR, PEARSON & CO.,

BINGHAM & LINCOLN

St. Albans, Feb. 27, 1867.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation;

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application;

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the Independence of the United States the 23d.

PAUL DILLINGHAM.

By the Governor, WM. P. DILLINGHAM,

Sec'y of Civil and Military Affairs.

Claim Agency.

By recent enactments of Congress, all Soldiers who have served three years and have received but $100 bounty from the United States, or who, having enlisted for three years, were discharged in consequence of wounds, and the widows, children, or parents of any soldier who enlisted for three years, under a promise of only $100 bounty, and who died in the service, are entitled to an additional bounty of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS!

All invalid pensioners who have lost a hand or foot, or have incurred disability equivalent to the loss of hand or foot, are entitled to a large increase of pension.

All pensioned widows of soldiers or sailors are entitled to an increased pension of two dollars per month for each child under sixteen years of age.

Claims of the above nature, and for arrears of pay, officers' extra pay, for horses lost in the U. S. service, commutation of rations of prisoners of war and prize money, will be promptly prosecuted by application by letter, enclosing discharges from service, will be attended to and the charge from the above nature can be presented, and their allowances obtained, by applying to
